ICJ Administrative Policy National Office Records Retention	Dated: January 26, 2012 Revised January 25, 2018

I. Objective

To ensure that records and documents produced by the Interstate Commission for Juveniles (ICJ) are adequately protected.

II. Applicability

This policy applies to all physical and electronic records produced by ICJ. This policy is not applicable to records or documents produced by member states which are maintained in accordance with policies and procedures established by their respective states.

II. Administration

The Executive Director is responsible for the implementation and administration of the record retention.

III. Suspension of Record Disposal In the Event of Litigation or Claims

In the event ICJ becomes party to a court action, a government investigation, or audit, the disposal of any and all records and documents shall be suspended until such time as the Executive Director, with the advice of counsel, determines otherwise.

IV. Record Keeping

Whenever an employee disposes of records the employee shall prepare a written log identifying the records and documents destroyed, the date destroyed and by whom. The logs are to be maintained by the Executive Director.

D. CORRESPONDENCE AND INTERNAL MEMORANDA

1. Correspondence and internal memoranda pertaining to routine matters and having no significant, lasting consequences should be discarded within two years. Some examples include:
 - Routine letters and notes that require no acknowledgment or follow-up, such as notes of appreciation, congratulations, letters of transmittal, and plans for meetings.
 - Form letters that require no follow-up.
 - Letters of general inquiry and replies that complete a cycle of correspondence.
 - Letters or complaints requesting specific action that have no further value after changes are made or action taken (such as name or address change).
 - Other letters of inconsequential subject matter or that definitely close correspondence to which no further reference will be necessary.
 - Chronological correspondence files.

2. Correspondence and memoranda pertaining to non-routine matters or having significant lasting consequences should generally be retained permanently. Some examples include:
 - Sensitive or confidential correspondence affecting business processes, responsibilities, or standards.

E. ELECTRONIC DOCUMENTS

1. Electronic Mail: shall, unless noted otherwise below, be retained for six months, after which time it can be deleted. Email attachments are to be handled according to topic as set forth in this policy.

2. Electronic Documents: Retention depends on the subject matter.
- PDF documents –PDF files are retained based upon the content of the file and the guidelines set forth in this policy.
 - Faxed Documents – Fax documents are retained based upon the content of the file and the guidelines set forth in this policy.

The ICJ National Office maintains regular backups of all electronic files (including email) either internally or through a third-party vendor. All vendors are required to maintain a disaster recovery plan in the event of a catastrophe. These backups are a safeguard to retrieve lost information should documents on the network experience problems.

In the event an electronic document, as defined above, is maintained in both paper and electronic form, the official document will be the electronic document.
